

Banwadi. Tal.Karad Dist.Satara

Introduction –

Smart Grampanchayat Banwadi is a clean & hygenic village Panchayat situated in karad tehsil satara district of Maharashtra State.

Brief information

- Total population :- 5183(Censuse 2011)
- Total Families :- 1644
- Total Households :- 1644
- Total FHTC :- 1644
- Total indiual Toilets :- 1644
- Total Common Toilets: :- 4 Units
- Total No Anganwadies :- 6
- Primary School :- 1
- Secondary School :- 1
- Collage :- 1

Every secondary school and collages have a separate toilets for girls & boys

Name of Sapranch :- Shr. Pradip Mohanrao Patil

Name of dy Sarpanch :- Shri.Vikas Tanaji Karande

Name of Secretary :- Shri. Dipak Babanrao Hinukale

- Drinking Water Supply Schemes & FHTC

There are total 1644 households in Banwadi Village. All households are individualy connected with 24 x7 water supply scheme FHTC. Eeach FHTC have a separate water meter which is register on family owners name. In Banwadi village water supply scheme completed under national rural drinking water program in 2013.

Inovative ideas : For reducing electricity bill water lifting machineries connected with 40 kw net metering solar project, the roof of wtp (water treatment plant). covered with solar panels. This is a leading and successive water supply scheme in Maharashtra state. Every individual householder receive computerized water bill after every two months, every householder receives water bill on his mobile through sms system. In village Banwadi there are 6 Anganwadies, 1 primery school 1, secondary school & 1 collage all institutes has their own water supply connection. and individual toilets.

- ODF

In Banwadi all 1644 households have their own toilets. There are 4 common toilets units for visitors people. In village many buildings wall painted with sanitation cleanliness message

- Solid and liquid waste management

Banawdi village Panchayat become a mile stone in Maharashtra state in solid and liquid management programme segregation of wet trash and dry trash done on individual family level, for conveying wet and dry trash there are 3 garbag trucks. From wet trash Banwadi built up a vermin- composting unit, From selling this vermi compost Grampanchayat Banwadi gain about 2.5 lack rs every annum. In liquid waste management Banwadi village collect all waste water in pond and after treating these water it is utilized for banana and drumstick cultivation

This innovative programmers are broadcast on Delhi Durdarshan programme in Janta Darbar. From many states of India and many districts of Maharashtra many honorable persons visited to Banwadi for taking the guidance of 24 x 7 water supply schemes and solid and liquid management projects.

- Tree plantation

Villagers of Banwadi planted more than 5500 plants under MGNREGA.